Purpose and Scope

This Privacy Policy explains how the Cooperative Farmers Forum – Shivamogga District (“Forum”, “we”, “us”) handles personal information submitted through savefarmers.in. The Website is an independent public awareness initiative and is not a Government of India or Government of Karnataka website.

Information We Collect

For an ESA objection, the Website may collect name, email, mobile/phone number, district, taluk, village, survey number where requested, objection category/text, reference number and submission timestamps. Hosting, security or infrastructure services may also create limited technical information.

Why We Use Information

We use information to prepare and generate objection letters, maintain submission records and reference numbers, facilitate communication of objections, respond to enquiries, maintain security and produce aggregate campaign statistics where appropriate.

PDF, Storage and Email

Submitted details may be inserted into a PDF and stored in configured cloud storage. The Website may assist the user in sending the objection through an email application or configured email service. Third-party email providers have their own terms and privacy practices.

Service Providers

The Website may use hosting, database/storage, PDF-generation, email, security and other infrastructure providers. They should be configured to process information only as necessary for the relevant service and with appropriate safeguards.

Retention

Submission records and generated PDFs may be retained for campaign administration, record-keeping, legal or other stated purposes for as long as reasonably necessary. The Forum should establish a specific retention schedule based on its actual requirements.

Security

Reasonable security measures appropriate to the information should be used. No internet-based system can be guaranteed completely secure.

User Requests

Questions or personal-data requests may be sent to contact@savefarmers.in. The Forum may reasonably verify the requester and applicable legal exceptions or retention requirements may apply.

Changes

This policy may be updated when Website practices, technology or applicable legal requirements change. The updated version will be published on savefarmers.in with a revised date.

Effective / Last Updated: 25 August 2026

This document is prepared from the information supplied for this website. It should be reviewed and approved by the Forum and, where appropriate, a qualified Indian legal/privacy professional before publication. It is not legal advice.
